

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA
TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1878.

THE BEST POLICY.

The coming election for Senator and Congressman will be one of great importance to every State in the Union. The hue of the next Congress is in question, and the defense or repudiation of national policies inaugurated by the Republicans, will be determined at the polls. In Nevada especially we should see to it that a Republican legislature is elected in order that we may not send to Washington men of the Potter stripe, to experiment upon the national life and nullify the good results reached through strife and hardship.

This will not be an easy task in Nevada as many would have us believe. There are local issues which must be consulted, and which will outweigh mere patriotism in the minds of the average citizen. These local interests are the immediate concern of every voter. Their protection is his first care, and to trifle with them is to invite his hostility. For these reasons and many more which they will suggest, we believe in bringing the choice as near to the voter as possible. Give him due weight and influence before and after the convention. He pays the taxes, let him know that you consider him personally interested in the matter at all times. There should be no disposition shown to limit his privileges or take anything from him. Every voter has an idea of the immediate wants of his county and State. Ask him to express these as well in the making of platforms and choice of delegates as in final selection between candidates nominated. This will induce much zeal and interest among the people, and render Republican success easy. If, however, it is attempted to foist the views of a few men upon the mass of either party, there will be a mixed vote on election day.

Put this affair in the hands of the people, gentlemen. Let them elect delegates and thus have a direct voice in choosing their standard bearers. If this course be pursued, Republican nominations will be equivalent to elections this fall. If the opposite practice finds favor those who nominate will have to convince the people afterwards. Hand this matter to the people and ask them to defend their interests. They will not be slow to comply. Ask them to support party hacks and one man choice. They will do as they please.

POTTER'S BOOMERANG.

Republicans should take some little thought in regard to the Democratic side-shows in Washington and Florida.

You will want to refer to the animals before long. It has never been the policy of this paper to call every Democrat a thief or rebel, but when men of the Potter stripe ask for public consideration, we want them to have a large audience. They are now trying to repudiate a decision which was reached through their active aid and council. They are trying to impeach high character by the testimony of confessed perjurers. They are trying to build up a sensation without regard to its probable consequence in revolution. They want to cause you voters to repudiate Republican principles because they can hire criminals to make out that their former oaths were perjury. What sort of testimony is this? What kind of ammunition is it? What kind of a bid is it for your votes? Potter is throwing his missiles right and left. Anderson has fallen, McLain has failed and Potter's complete discomfiture will be equal in degree to the unscrupulous means, and the traitorous intent of his scheme.

The Reno Gazette, referring to various rumors in regard to Gen. Tom Williams' Senatorial aspirations, says there is one to the effect that he will stamp this State to beat Cassidy for Congress. He has no cause to love Cassidy, who has abused him and denounced him and his friends in season and out of season, and if he should take the stump against him he will give him and his record an overhauling that will make him jump higher than a sky-rocket. If Williams really means to take the stump against Cassidy, the latter had better be warned in time and haul in his horns on the Congressional preposition, for Williams has got a tongue that can cut like a two-edged sword.—Reville.

Geo. McCullough reports a big strike in the Rives & Berry mine, in Spring Valley. A large body of high grade ore has been met with.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Herald's Paris cable says: The French journals all praise our agricultural implements, and say they are unrivaled in Europe. Oregon and California wheat is attracting a great deal of attention. The mineral exhibit from the Pacific coast embraces 6,400 specimens, many of them of great size and value. All the famous mines of California, Nevada and Arizona are represented in the collection, which, as a whole, is the finest ever brought to Europe. Among the curious things which have just been added to our own section, is a superb jewel casket from the private collection of Mrs. Sunderland, of San Francisco. It is made entirely of gold and gold-bearing quartz from the Pacific coast mines. In beauty of workmanship it is unrivaled. It is in the exhibit of Thomas Oakley.

Deacon Parkinson of the Tribune is very unfortunate in expressing public opinion. He has been to Douglass county lately and returned saying that the people of that region wanted to be annexed to Ormsby county. The News replies to the effect that Mr. Parkinson is wilfully wrong. That paper is irreverent enough to call the Deacon a V. & T. phonograph, and adds that in his every act there is the relation of master and serf. Parkie's scheme to annex Douglass county, and the ease with which he assumes to speak for that county, are on a par with his opinion upon other matters—harmless and valuable only as crimina.

A San Francisco preacher stepped into the pulpit with a full stomach and delivered himself of this:

Christianity says to the rich, "Do that which is just and equal;" and to the poor, "Render service not as eye-servants and men-pleasers, but faithfully, as unto God."

It will be seen that this sermonizer realizes that the rich man has no important duties to render to his maker, while the poor man must be rather careful. Christianity does not say any such awkward idiocies as the one quoted. In the mouths of well-fed drivellers, however, charity itself would lose its meaning.

Somebody who is either proprietor of a powder mill or wants to be Grand Marshal, writes to the San Francisco Chronicle to know, "If patriotism is dead." He wants fire-crackers on the 4th of July. The editor of the Chronicle does not seem to know, and hence we reply: Pat, dear reader, is not altogether dead, but has been very unwell, we have been giving him Potter prescriptions lately and a few more pills like Anderson and McLin, will brace him up without doubt.

The Eureka Sentinel publishes an editorial utterance which claims that worry and not excess of brain-work is what kills so many editors. Considering that the Sentinel stole the editorial in question it would seem that the editor fears the overwork most, after all. An opinion which, in the manner of delicacy, contradicts itself. A sort of still-born editorial, as it were.

A special dispatch from Des Moines to the Omaha Bee says the Communists there say boldly that on the day when Congress adjourns, June 17th, every car wheel in the United States will stop at noon. They are evidently preparing for some important event.

In some counties they prepare to go to jail, just after such threats against law and order.

That old-time Democrat, Jeff Davis, has now a suit at law which makes him rich. Jeff has been compelled to chew plug tobacco lately, and limit himself to one rebellious letter each year. He will now eat fine-cut and enlarge upon the Lost Cause semi-anually.

The Bloody Bannocks.

A runner arrived at Camp McDermitt Sunday from Alvord, Grant county, Oregon, with letters from the citizens asking for arms and assistance, and with news that the Bannocks at Malheur reservation had captured all the arms there, and were going to burn the houses and take the stock and murder the citizens. Natchez is at the reservation, and Winnemucca is at Juniper lake. The settlers at Stein Mountain are flying from their homes and fortifying at Devine's ranch. Captain Thompson, commanding the infantry stationed at McDermitt, is unable to send any assistance to the defenseless settlers, but has reported the condition of affairs to headquarters. Late reports from Silver City say that men who have arrived from Battle Creek, near South Mountain, say that the fight between the citizens and Bannocks on Saturday was not so serious as at first reported. The bodies of Purdy and Steude have been brought in from the battle field, and was buried Monday with Masonic and Odd Fellows' ceremonies. Newcomb and Dorsey were not killed, as at first reported, but were seriously wounded.

All the troops from Benicia, Camp Halleck and other posts, now en route for Idaho, aggregate 350 effective men and will be concentrated at the scene of hostilities by Saturday next. All other troops in the Department are under orders to hold themselves in readiness for marching at a moment's notice. The companies at San Diego are ordered to take the next steamer on the 15th. At San Francisco the impression prevails that the campaign will prove a short one, if the troops can bring the Indians to bay in their present locality, but if they escape to the lava beds, the war may last all summer.

Crickets at Tuscarora.

[From the Times-Review.]

They are here. The abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, is upon us. For days past, people coming from Cornucopia have warned us of the approach of a vast body dreadful crickets, and this morning the advance guard of the destroying host entered the city. People unaccustomed to this annual visitation of desolating insects can form no conception of their frightful ravages. The Nevada black cricket is an omnivorous monster. He greedily devours every living thing in the vegetable kingdom from a sagebrush to a pumpkin vine. Nothing green escapes him, and as he travels with considerable celerity, he rapidly cuts a clean swath for many a league through the country. At present the insects are not more than one-third developed, and are therefore comparatively harmless, but by the first of July they will attain to the size of half grown mice and then woe to the gardener whose premises they invade. The cricket cannot fly, however, and for that reason are less to be dreaded than Kansas grasshoppers.

Will Sustain Hayes.

A Times Washington special of June 10th, gives a piece of secret history. In an interview with Senator Ben Hill, he said that forty-two ex-Confederate Congressmen had pledged themselves to abide by the decision of the Electoral Commission, so that despite the sensational rumors that filled the air towards the close of the count, there never was the remotest possibility of trouble. We held the balance of power, and did not propose to prevent it. Hill further said he thought the President an honest, pure and upright man. If anybody attempts to inaugurate a revolution the ex-rebels will put it down. We will not allow it.

The Pennsylvania Socialists.

Another meeting of those desirous to contribute to the fund for the defense of the parties charged with the murder of Lord Lietrin in Ireland, was held in Philadelphia Sunday afternoon. Subscriptions were received and resolutions adopted making the affair a national one. The Socialists had arranged for a hall for a mass meeting Tuesday evening, but on going to pay the rent were told that the Mayor had requested the proprietor not to permit the meeting. An indignant meeting was held, and strong language against the action of the Mayor indulged in. Arrangements were made for another hall.

A Drivers' Death.

James H. Steele, a professional diver met his death in San Francisco, on Saturday while in the discharge of his duties. He was engaged in diving from the schooner Mable and Ethel, off Folsom street wharf, in quest of an anchor. He went down at 5:15 last evening, and after about five minutes not signifying any desire to be taken up he was drawn up by his attendant. The front glass of his helmet was broken open, and he was found to be unconscious. All efforts to save him were futile, and he died at 5:30.

A transaction that suits everybody taking down the parlor stove for the season.
